

This radio station is the only station that plays this type of music in my area. There are thousands of people in my area that listen to this station and recieve help where they would not likely find help. This is a part of America that depends greatly on christianity and God and removing this station would prevent people from finding help that they might not find any other place. Please don't remove this station.